

MEDICAL ASSISTING CERTIFICATION TRAINING

Medical Assistants play a valuable role in the daily operations of both the front and back offices in a variety of healthcare settings.

- » Enjoy the flexibility of online classes, blended with lab practicums and clinical experiences
- » Mandatory face-to-face orientation is held at the Health Sciences Center on the Lemley Memorial Campus
- » Reliable computer and internet access and basic computer skills are required
- » Pursue your National Certified Medical Assistant (NCMA) through the National Center for Competency Testing (NCCT) (US Issued High School Diploma or GED required to sit for NCCT Certification Exam)

PART-TIME CERTIFICATION MAP

